FEE QUOTE / RETAINER AGREEMENT FOR A CHAPTER 13 BANKRUPTCY CASE

Legal Services provided in a typical Chapter 13 case broadly include three categories of work:

- Pre-Filing Services involves a review of the documents you are requested to provide and preparation of the bankruptcy petition and related documents, analysis of assets, exemptions and asset protection strategies, and discussion of chapter 13 plan options. Pre-Filing Services are frequently performed in part at your initial consultation and you will be billed for that consultation should you decide to retain.
- Post-Filing/Pre-Confirmation Services includes representation at the meeting of creditors, advice to you and correspondence with your Trustee to resolve objections from the Trustee and your Creditors, attendance at the Confirmation Hearing in Court and preparation of such additional documents as are necessary to secure confirmation of your chapter 13 plan.
- Post-Confirmation Services. A chapter 13 case can last up to five years and it is impossible to project what the precise Post-Confirmation Services will entail. Most cases require between 3 to 5 hours per year of legal services. If you have a mortgage on your home your case will require greater than normal legal services due to requirements imposed by the Bankruptcy Code upon your lenders. The following list provides some examples of Post-Confirmation Services:

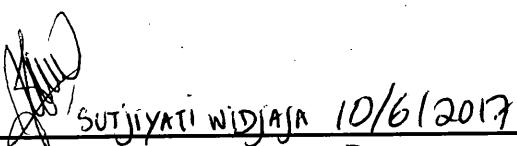

Amendment of Schedules	Modification of a Chapter 13 Plan
Annual Review for Plan Compliance	Defense of a Motion to Dismiss
Defense of a Motion for Relief	Sale or Refinance of Real Property
Proceedings to Strip off a Junior Lien	Claims Litigation
Conversion to Chapter 7	Final Case Review

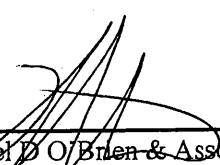

2. Your chapter 13 case is fundamentally an "hourly fee" case meaning you will be charged for the actual time spent working on your behalf. Staff and Attorneys in this Firm are billed at rates between $100 and $370 per hour and such rates are subject to annual increase at the sole discretion of attorneys. Increases up to 5% per year are by agreement presumed reasonable and do not require advance notice. You will incur costs of at least $370.00 for the court filing fee and court-mandated counseling courses. You MAY incur additional costs that will be advanced by this Firm and paid by you through the bankruptcy case. This could include: petition amendment fees, lien report fees, appraisal fees, expert fees.

The estimated fee for work to be performed through Post-Filing/Pre-Confirmation Services is $ 3750. This fee is paid as follows:

- A. A retainer fee of $ 500 for us to take your case and to commence Pre-Filing Services.
- B. An additional retainer fee of $ 1000 in advance of filing to complete Pre-Filing Services and to cover the known costs of $370.00 identified above.
- C. The balance of $ 2250 will be paid by the Trustee from the money you pay into your Plan. If this estimate is low then any additional fees for Pre-Confirmation Services and all fees approved by the Court for Post-Confirmation Services will be paid through your chapter 13 plan. If your case is dismissed when you owe money to this Firm and the Trustee or this Firm is holding funds belonging to you, you specifically authorize us to negotiate such checks to pay fees owed.

3. You have not hired us nor have we accepted your case until you have delivered to Michael D O'Brien & Associates the retainer fee quoted above. Upon paying the retainer fee, please sign below.
